Company Announcements
Australian Securities Exchange

Penrice Soda Holdings Limited (PSH) Application by London City Equities Limited (LCE)

Further to PSH's announcement made on 19 October 2010, the Federal Court has delivered judgment on an application made by LCE under section 247A of the Corporations Act 2001, seeking access to inspect certain of Penrice's books.

Justice Robertson of the Federal Court has handed down a decision that LCE be provided with access to categories of documents consistent with Penrice's submissions (LCE had sought access to a significantly broader range of documents). Justice Robertson has indicated that he will make orders in those terms on 24 June 2011.

As previously advised, and in the context that LCE indicated that the application arises from concerns regarding information released by PSH and the conduct of the directors of PSH, PSH is satisfied that it has fulfilled all of its disclosure obligations and that its directors have at all times acted in accordance with their duties.

PSH will keep the market informed as required by the ASX Listing Rules.
